IN MEMORIAM

JOEL HORLEN, 1937-2022

Joel "Joe" Horlen, who pitched for the White Sox from 1961-71, passed away on April 10, 2022 at the age of 84.

Horlen, a San Antonio native, went 113-113 with a 3.11 ERA (663 ER/1,917.0 IP), 1,008 strikeouts and 59 complete games in 329 games (284 starts) over 11 seasons with the Sox. He ranks among the franchise leaders in quality starts (5th, 177), starts (8th), wins (9th) and IP (9th).

Over a five-year period from 1964-68, Horlen recorded a 2.32 ERA (289 ER/1,122.1 IP), the second-best mark in the major leagues behind only Hall-of-Famer Sandy Koufax (2.32).

Horlen finished second in the 1967 American League Cy Young Award voting after going 19-7 with a 2.06 ERA (59 ER/258.0 IP), 13 complete games and six shutouts in 35 starts. He became the last Sox pitcher to lead the AL in ERA that season and tied for the league lead in shutouts while being named to the AL All-Star Team.

Horlen threw the 12th no-hitter in franchise history on September 10, 1967 vs. Detroit at old Comiskey Park, striking out four batters with no walks in a 6-1 White Sox victory. Only a HBP and fielding error prevented Horlen from recording a perfect game.

Horlen ranked second in the AL with a 1.88 ERA in 1964, which remains the lowest figure by a Sox pitcher since 1920. He finished his MLB career with Oakland in 1972, making 32 appearances (six starts) as the A's won the first of three consecutive World Series titles.

GARY PETERS, 1937-2023

Gary Peters, the 1963 American League Rookie of the Year and a two-time All-Star, died on January 26, 2023. He was 85.

Peters spent parts of 14 seasons in the major leagues, going 124-103 with a 3.25 ERA (751 ER/2,081.0 IP), 1,420 strikeouts and 79 complete games (23 shutouts) over 359 games (286 starts).

Peters pitched for the White Sox from 1959-69, winning 91 games and recording a 2.92 ERA. From 1963-67, he was 77-49 with a 2.50 ERA (321 ER/1,157.2 IP) and 47 complete games. During that five-year span, he ranked second in the AL in ERA behind teammate Joel Horlen and third in wins.

He went 19-8 with a 2.33 ERA (63 ER/243.0 IP), 189 strikeouts and 13 complete games in 1963 to earn AL Rookie of the Year honors and was named an All-Star in 1964 after going 20-8 with a 2.50 ERA (76 ER/273.2 IP), 205 strikeouts and 11 complete games.

Peters led the AL with a 1.98 ERA (45 ER/204.2 IP) in 1966 and was named an All-Star for the second time in 1967 when he went 16-11 with a 2.28 ERA (66 ER/260.0 IP), 215 strikeouts and 11 complete games as the White Sox fell just short of winning the AL pennant.

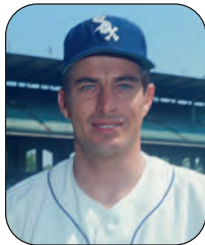

Peters also was one of the best hitting pitchers of his era, recording a career .222/.253/.348 (179-807) slash line with 19 home runs and 102 RBI. He finished his MLB career by pitching three seasons for Boston (1970-72), winning 16 games in 1970 and 14 in 1971.

Heading into its sixteenth year, ACE provides the financial means and educational resources for more than 150 youth annually and prepares each participant to succeed in life beyond the diamond. The program holds a 99 percent high school graduation rate and has helped more than 250 students earn scholarships to schools like Louisville, Michigan and Vanderbilt, as well as several Historically Black Colleges & Universities. In 2022, several top ACE 16U and 17U players received invites to MLB's biggest events for rising young stars, including the Breakthrough Series, Dream Series, Hank Aaron Invitational and more.

LEADING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Crisis Response: The White Sox were swift in responding to unforeseen crises in 2022, including donating all final proceeds from the Opening Day Sox Split 50/50 raffle to support UNICEF and World Central Kitchen efforts to aid children and families suffering as a result of the ongoing conflict in Ukraine. Following the tragic Fourth of July shooting in Highland Park, Illinois, the White Sox donated $75,000 to the Highland Park Community Fund and an additional $25,000 to the Lake County Community Crisis Relief Fund, among other in-kind and ticket donations.

Rally the Vote: The organization announced a renewed partnership with Rally the Vote, a nonpartisan coalition founded by the Sacramento Kings to increase civic engagement through professional sports team resources. Sharing voter registration and election poll information, the White Sox reminded fans of key dates, such as National Voter Registration Day, the Illinois voter registration deadline, Early Voting Day and Election Day. The re-launched “Step Up to the Plate and Vote” campaign featured an online, up-to-date hub for fans to learn more.

SERVING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

White Sox Volunteer Corps:
A signature program for the White Sox, the Volunteer Corps, presented by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Illinois (BCBSIL) was created in 2009 in response to a call for Americans to better their communities through service. The program organizes local outreach events that incorporate support from current and former players, coaches, Southpaw, front office staff and members of the volunteer group as they serve shoulder-to-shoulder to make Chicago a better place to live, work and play.

COMPETING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Double Duty Classic (DDC): Named after Negro Leagues standout Ted “Double Duty” Radcliffe, the Double Duty Classic (DDC) returned in 2022 to celebrate the rich history and tradition of Negro Leagues baseball in Chicago. After a college day workout and forum with Division I coaches, this year’s DDC showcased more than 35 ACE players competing under the ballpark lights for the first-ever night game.

Chaneyville: For the first time in its history, White Sox Charities supported one of Chicago’s only all-girls travel baseball teams, Chaneyville. Fully funding all of their tournaments for the 2022 season, the organization also outfitted each girl in pinstripe uniforms, including home and away jerseys, pants, hats, socks, belts and more for the Baseball For All National Girls Baseball Tournament in Mesa, Arizona.

RBI World Series Champions: Major League Baseball’s RBI program is designed to give young people from underserved and diverse communities the opportunity to play baseball and softball, while also encouraging academic achievement and teaching the value of teamwork. This year, the White Sox selected ACE players to represent the organization at the RBI World Series in Vero Beach, Florida. The Junior and Senior teams swept the competition, with the White Sox now claiming a combined five World Series titles throughout RBI’s 34-year history.

Additional Youth Baseball Initiatives: In 2022, the White Sox welcomed more than 2,500 kids from more than 40 different communities to instructional camps across Chicagoland, including a PBATS Youth Sports Clinic, a pitching clinic with José Contreras and the Inner City Youth Baseball program (ICYB) that provides free, safe and structured recreational baseball during the summer months to youth without the financial resources and support to compete.

DIVERSITY BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Game Changers: Now in its sixth season advocating for diversity and inclusion in sports, the White Sox Game Changers series, presented by Modelo Especial and Saint Xavier University, again showcased compelling stories about sports and culture through the work of local artists. Following home plate and base designs from artists who identify within the African American, Asian American and Pacific Islander and Latino communities, the organization held a Game Changers Summit: Empowering Voices for Social Impact in late September. Topics ranged from the latest success and challenges related to DEI in collegiate and professional sports, the importance of allyship and what lays ahead for advancing the industry.

Multicultural Celebrations: The White Sox hold numerous multicultural events and special activations to celebrate and engage the community. These efforts have included documentary film screenings of “The Other Boys of Summer”, as well as a private showing of “42” with a special appearance from All-Star shortstop Tim Anderson for young athletes in the organization’s ACE program. The White Sox also have introduced exhibits illustrating the contributions and legacies of Black and Latino players to the national pastime, interactive tailgates and local artist collaborations specifically marketing to African American and Latino fans and theme nights such as Jackie Robinson Day, House Music Night and African American and Hispanic Heritage Night. Most recently, the organization created programming to honor the history and achievements of African American pioneers who helped forge a path in baseball and beyond. This support includes initiatives such as the Jackie Robinson Student Contest, content partnerships with TikTok historian Shermann Dilla Thomas and local artist Edo (@legomyedo) among other notable influencers.

Additional Initiatives: From philanthropy and outreach in Chicago’s underserved communities to supporting conversations about race, representation and culture throughout the game, the White Sox passionately and proudly promote equality and foster positive social change.

JERRY REINSDORF

CHAIRMAN

Jerry Reinsdorf begins his 43rd season as chairman of the Chicago White Sox in 2023, only the seventh individual in Major League Baseball history to surpass the 40-year milestone as a club owner (Connie Mack holds the mark with 50 seasons in leadership of the Philadelphia A's).

During his time as chairman, Reinsdorf's two professional sports teams – the White Sox and the NBA's Chicago Bulls – have delivered seven World Championship titles to the city of Chicago and its fans. Reinsdorf accepted the Commissioner's Trophy from Bud Selig on October 26, 2005, after the White Sox swept their way to the team's first World Series Championship since 1917. The championship was celebrated by a ticker-tape parade attended by nearly 2 million Chicagoans.

The White Sox have reached the postseason seven times during Reinsdorf's tenure, most recently in 2021 when the team captured the American League Central title to reach the postseason in successive seasons for the first time in franchise history. The Sox also captured division titles in 1983, 1993, 2000, 2005 and 2008, as well as claiming a wild card berth in 2020. Every one of the club's Top 20 single-season attendance totals have come since 1981, including a franchise-record 2.95 million fans in 2006.

Reinsdorf's White Sox teams have featured three Most Valuable Player Award winners (Frank Thomas in 1993-94 and José Abreu in 2020), two Cy Young Award winners (LaMarr Hoyt in 1983 and Jack McDowell in 1993), four Rookies of the Year (last Abreu in 2014), five Managers of the Year (last Ozzie Guillen in 2005) and two Executives of the Year (Roland Hemond in 1983 and Rick Hahn in 2020).

Reinsdorf and the White Sox have received five prestigious honors in recognition of the franchise's ongoing commitment to giving back to the community. In December 2022, Reinsdorf and the White Sox received MLB's Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, recognizing the team's Amateur City Elite (ACE) program which provides baseball and educational opportunities for underserved Chicago youth. Since its inception in 2007, over 30 ACE players have been drafted, while more than 250 have signed scholarships to play college baseball. The White Sox are just the third franchise to be honored with the Selig Award twice, also being recognized in 2011 for the club's Volunteer Corps program, an initiative that activates staff, players, resources and over 5,000 fan volunteers for various projects improving the Chicagoland community.

In June 2011, Reinsdorf traveled to Washington D.C. to accept the Jefferson Award, one of the nation's top honors for community service and volunteerism, known as the "Nobel Prize for Public Service," while in August 2011, he received the Barnes and Thornburn Jackie Robinson Award for diversity in the workplace. In September 2012, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were again recognized nationally, receiving the Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in sports philanthropy for the team's Volunteer Corps program. Reinsdorf's life-long support for charitable and community organizations has resulted in numerous other awards and recognitions.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises have donated millions of dollars to causes in the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and Chicago

Bulls Charities. Chicago White Sox Charities has donated more than $40 million to worthy Chicagoland organizations in cumulative giving. In 2015, the Chicago Bulls received honors as the inaugural ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year, and in 2017, the White Sox were finalists for the same award, which celebrates and recognizes how members of the sports industry use sport to serve their communities and make a positive impact. In December 2017, owners for five Chicago sports teams – the Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls, Cubs and White Sox – joined together as the Chicago Sports Alliance to donate $1 million annually to the UChicago Crime Lab and other worthy programs in an ongoing effort to support solutions to the violence that plagues some neighborhoods in Chicago.

Reinsdorf was instrumental in the formation of the Diverse Business Partners (DBP) Program in 1998, and Major League Baseball honored Reinsdorf and the White Sox with the Club Appreciation Award in 2018 to celebrate the program's 20th anniversary. Over the past 20-plus years, Major League Baseball and its clubs have purchased hundreds of millions of dollars in goods and services from minority and women-owned businesses, and the White Sox annually rank among baseball's leaders in the DBP program.

In recognition of his life-long commitment to promoting diversity, Reinsdorf's White Sox hosted Major League Baseball's 2013 Diversity Summit in Chicago, and the franchise also was chosen to host MLB's Civil Rights Game and Beacon Awards Luncheon in August 2014.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been involved in Major League Baseball initiatives at an industry-wide level. He served on the Commissioner's Executive Council and many other committees, including Player Relations, Relocation, Ownership & Legislative, Business and Media Board and Long-Range Labor Planning.

In 2008, his long history of donating time to Major League Baseball led to Reinsdorf being asked to serve on the Board of The Baseball Hall of Fame. Frank Thomas and Tony La Russa were inducted as members of the Hall of Fame's Class of 2014, Tim Lincecum in 2017, Jim Thome in 2018, Harold Baines in 2019 and longtime great Minnie Minoso was inducted in July 2022. Ken "Hawk" Harrelson was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence in 2020.

OFFICERS

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls – the third-longest in the NBA – the team has captured six World Championships (1991-93, '96-98). Reinsdorf was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2016 in Springfield, Mass., becoming the 10th NBA owner to be honored.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his late wife, Marty, have three surviving children, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

HOWARD PIZER

SENIOR EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Howard Pizer begins his 43rd season with the White Sox in 2023. Pizer, who attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf, has primary responsibility for the business and administrative operations of the White Sox, as well as oversight of the club's legal matters and governmental relations.

The nearly 50-year business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group. He served as the club's executive vice president from 1981-2012 before being promoted to the position of senior executive vice president by Reinsdorf in October 2012.

As a member of the MLB President's Committee, Pizer collaborated with executives across the industry to respond to challenges created by the global pandemic for the White Sox and for baseball. During his 40-plus-year tenure with the White Sox, Pizer has supervised the franchise's hosting of two Major League All-Star Games (1983 and 2003), the team's seven postseason appearances (1983, 1993, 2000, 2005, 2008, 2020 and 2021), and the 2005 World Series, the first won by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years. Pizer also has coordinated the team's last three Hall of Fame induction celebrations, for Frank Thomas in 2014, Harold Baines in 2019 and the induction of "Mr. White Sox," Minnie Minoso in 2022.

Pizer served as the lead White Sox contact with MLB for the Field of Dreams game in Dyersville, Iowa, in August 2021. Highlighted by Tim Anderson's dramatic walkoff home run, the nationally televised game against the New York Yankees was the most watched regular-season baseball game in 16 years.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to build new Comiskey Park, now Guaranteed Rate Field. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons. He continues to serve in an executive position at the United Center.

Pizer also participated in the development of the Advocate Center, the Bulls training center located next to the United Center, the Fifth Third Arena, the Blackhawks practice facility and community ice center. Pizer is the White Sox chief liaison for the White Sox with the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA), the state agency that serves as owner of Guaranteed Rate Field. He is responsible for the overall relationships between the White Sox and their longtime concessionaires, Illinois Sportservice, and Levy Restaurants.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the board of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities; Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics; Local Initiatives Support Corporation/Chicago Board of Advisors; and Near West Side Community Development Corp. The Chicago native has participated in White Sox Volunteer Corps community service events, as well as the club's support of community efforts to develop the Wentworth Gardens and Bronzeville areas near the ballpark.

Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities, and is a longtime advocate for the franchise's Volunteer Corps initiative and Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program, both of which have been honored by MLB with the Allan H. "Bud" Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence.

Born on October 23, 1941, in Chicago, Ill., Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline and Rachel; and four grandchildren.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Ken Williams begins his 42nd season in professional baseball in 2023 and his 11th as executive vice president of the White Sox after being promoted to the position in October 2012. In his current role, Williams has increased the scope and range of his involvement with the club while continuing to maintain oversight and final approval on major baseball decisions. He also attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf where he has been among the leading voices for diversity in the game.

Williams is now the longest tenured African American to lead a major sports franchise in U.S. sports history (surpassing Elgin Baylor of the NBA's Los Angeles Clippers and Ozzie Newsome of the NFL's Baltimore Ravens in Fall 2022). The highest-ranking active African American executive for any Major League Baseball team, Williams (October 2000) also is the second-longest serving top baseball officer at an MLB club, behind only Brian Cashman of the New York Yankees (1998).

The 2021 White Sox captured the American League Central title, marking the first time in franchise history successive Sox teams reached postseason. The 2021 season marked the fifth trip to the postseason for Williams with the White Sox, joining the division-winning team in 2000, when he served as vice president of player development, the 2005 World Series Champions and the 2008 AL Central division winners, when he was the club's general manager, as well as the 2020 White Sox, who went 35-25 (.583) during the Covid-19 shortened 60-game season, earning an AL Wild Card postseason spot.

During his time as head of the White Sox Baseball Operations Department, Williams has experienced a Most Valuable Player Award winner (José Abreu in 2020), the Mariano Rivera Reliever of the Year (Liam Hendriks in 2021), a Manager of the Year (Ozzie Guillén in 2005), an Executive of the Year winner (Rick Hahn in 2021), two AL Rookie of the Year winners (Gordon Beckham in 2009 and Abreu in 2014), three Comeback Player of the Year recipients, 12 Silver Slugger honorees and seven Gold Glove Award winners.

Williams spent 12 seasons (2001-12) as the White Sox general manager, winning two division titles with five second-place finishes. The club finished .500 or better nine times, going 1,014-931 (.521) over his 12 seasons, the best winning percentage in franchise history. Williams capped his fifth season as general manager in 2005 by winning the third World Series title in White Sox history and the first since 1917, ending an 88-year drought. The 2005 World Champion White Sox became just the second team in major-league history to lead its division wire-to-wire and sweep the World Series in four games. The other was the 1927 Yankees. The Sox were 11-1 in postseason play, winning their final eight games.

During his tenure as general manager, Williams acquired 171 players in 72 trades involving the major-league roster. His teams included four Cuban players, José Contreras, Orlando Hernández, Alexei Ramírez and Dayan Vicedo, and two Japanese players, Tadahito Iguchi and Shingo Takatsu.

Williams was the first African American general manager in Chicago sports history and the third in major-league history, following Bill Lucas (Atlanta, 1979) and Bob Watson (Houston, 1994-95/Yankees, 1996-97). From 2001-03, Williams and Jerry Manuel formed the first African American general manager/manager tandem in major-league history. Williams has received multiple Trailblazer Awards from the Rainbow PUSH Coalition and The Chicago Urban League for his efforts to promote diversity, and was honored at the McDonald's 365Black Awards as one of the nation's history makers.

Williams has spent five decades in baseball in various capacities: player, scout, director of minor league operations, special assistant to the chairman, vice president of player development and general manager. He joined the front office in November 1992 as a scout, specializing in the inner cities, and was named special assistant to Jerry Reinsdorf in 1994. He served as director of minor-league operations from 1995-96 and vice president of player development from 1997-2000. Under his direction, the Sox were named 2000 Organization of the Year by Baseball America and USA Today.

Active in the organization's community outreach programs, Williams takes part in the annual "Double Duty Classic" at the ballpark, speaking to young amateur baseball players, including at MLB's 2022 Dream Series in Phoenix, about their role in the history of the sport. Williams supports the team's Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program, honored by MLB in 2022 with the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence. Since its inception in 2007, ACE has had 30 players drafted and over 250 players sign college scholarships to play baseball. Williams currently is Co-Chair of MLB's Diversity Committee, an 18-member task force given the objective of increasing diversity in the game, particularly among black players.

Williams has spoken publicly about the need and value of diversity in baseball front offices, and also has served on panels alongside such notables as Martin Luther King III, Attallah Shabazz, daughter of Malcolm X, Sharon Robinson, Charles Ogletree, Hank Aaron and Frank Robinson.

Williams has been active in the team's "Becoming A Man" program, an initiative aimed at teaching young, at-risk men how to resolve conflict in a non-violent manner. The BAM program was recognized by President Barack Obama for its positive impact on the fight against urban violence. Williams also met with members of the READI program as part of the Chicago Sports Alliance's efforts to prevent gun violence.

Williams was a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Contemporary Baseball Players Committee that inducted Fred McGriff in 2023.

A former outfielder with the White Sox (1986-88), Detroit (1989-90), Toronto (1990-91) and Montreal (1991), Williams appeared in 451 major-league games.

Born on April 6, 1964, in Berkeley, Calif., Williams attended Stanford University, where he played football. He is married to Zoraida Sambolin, a former CNN and local television anchor. Together, she and Williams promote prostate and breast cancer awareness, education and early screening, as well as promoting the importance of Covid-19 testing and vaccination.

In January 2019, the couple teamed with a local restaurant and St. Sabina's Church to offer free meals to workers negatively impacted by the government shutdown. Williams has three sons: Kenny Jr., who is assistant director of player development for the White Sox, Kyle, who played six years in the NFL including with the Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos in 2015, and Tyler, who played minor league baseball. Williams also has two step children: Nico and Sofia.

OFFICERS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Rick Hahn begins his 11th season as White Sox general manager in 2023 with a new field manager and a team aiming to reach the postseason for the third time in four seasons.

Hahn named Pedro Grifol the new Sox manager on November 3, 2022, following the team's 81-81 season.

Grifol, a member of two American League pennant winning and a World Series championship staff with the Kansas City Royals, is the 42nd different manager in White Sox history. He joins the White Sox after a 10-year stint in Kansas City (2013-22), including the last three as Royals bench coach. A Cuban American from Miami, he becomes the fourth current Latino manager in Major League Baseball, joining Boston's Alex Cora, St. Louis' Oliver Marmol and Washington's Dave Martinez.

The 2021 White Sox, who spent 152 days in first place, captured the American League Central title with 93 victories, while the 2020 Sox (35-25) claimed a Wild Card berth. The 2021 White Sox accomplished a franchise first, reaching the postseason in consecutive seasons. It was the franchise's first division title since 2008 and fifth since 1969.

Hahn was named the 2020 Sporting News Major League Baseball Executive of the Year in a vote by fellow executives across Major League Baseball, joining Roland Hemond (1972) and Bill Veck (1977) as the only White Sox executives to receive the honor, first awarded in 1936.

This offseason, the White Sox re-signed INF Elvis Andrus, added free agent RHP Mike Clevinger and signed OF Andrew Benintendi, to a five-year, $75-million contract on January 3, 2023. In 2022, Hahn continued the organization's long-standing connection to Cuba, signing international free agents OF Oscar Colás, the Sox No. 2 prospect, and RHP Norge Vera. Prior to the 2021 season, the Sox acquired RHP Lance Lynn, added free agent Cuban OF Yoelqui Céspedes, and signed RHP Liam Hendriks to a four-year, $54-million contract. The White Sox signed Lynn, who finished third in Cy Young Award voting, to a two-year, $38-million extension with a club option for 2024, in July 2021.

The 2020 White Sox featured the AL Most Valuable Player in 1B José Abreu, runner-up for AL Rookie of the Year and Gold Glove-winning CF Luis Robert, and three Silver Slugger Award winners in Abreu (1B), Tim Anderson (SS) and OF Eloy Jiménez. Abreu became just the fourth White Sox player (fifth time) to earn MVP honors, joining 2B Nellie Fox (1959), 1B Dick Allen (1972) and 1B Frank Thomas (1993-94). Since 2002, the White Sox are one of only four teams to have at least one player receive a vote for MVP, Cy Young or Rookie of the Year each season (RHP Dylan Cease received votes for MVP and Cy Young in 2022; Abreu received an MVP vote).

The White Sox agreed to a contract extension with Robert in January 2020, continuing a long-standing desire to reach agreements with players viewed as core parts of the team's future. The Sox agreed with Jiménez in 2019 and have a history of similar deals with Anderson, LHP Aaron Bummer, LHP José Quintana, LHP Chris Sale, LHP Mark Buehrle, 1B Paul Konerko and many others. The agreements with Jiménez and Robert were noteworthy as each came prior to the player's major-league debut. In November 2019, Hahn signed free agent C Yasmani Grandal to a four-year, $73-million contract.

Hahn has added a number of talented prospects to the organization since 2016, including 3B Yoán Moncada, Baseball America's 2016 Minor League Player of the Year, and RHP Michael Kopec in a trade with Boston, and GioLioto from Washington in a multiplayer deal. During the 2017 season, Hahn acquired Jiménez, who topped AL rookies with 31 home runs in 2019, and RHP Dylan Cease, 2022 AL Cy Young Award runnerup, from the Chicago Cubs.

In response to challenges faced by the sports and entertainment industries due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Savarise has overseen the implementation of health and well-being protocols for MLB, the NBA and the NHL.

Savarise, who was promoted to senior vice president in 2004, was responsible for the planning and construction of the new ballpark, which opened in 1991. He has overseen the ballpark's many popular renovations and remodeling efforts, including the installation of three new video boards in 2016, construction of the Goose Island seating area in right field in 2019 and new LED field lighting as part of a green initiative in 2020.

Most of the renovations to Guaranteed Rate Field have focused on improving the game experience for fans by creating a more intimate and fun atmosphere. LONE STARS

- A year after four White Sox players — SS Tim Anderson, RHPs Liam Hendriks and Lance Lynn and LHP Carlos Rodón — represented the White Sox at the 2021 All-Star Game in Colorado, Anderson and Hendriks were the Sox representatives at the Midsummer Classic at Dodger Stadium.
- Anderson, a reserve in 2021, was voted by baseball fans as the American League starting shortstop, going 1-2 ... he became the fourth Sox shortstop to start an All-Star Game, joining Luis Aparicio (seven times, last 1970), Chico Carrasquel (three times) and Luke Appling (twice), and the first to make back-to-back teams since Ozzie Guillén in 1990-91.

1906 WORLD SERIES

WHITE SOX 4, CHICAGO CUBS 2

Recap: The "Hitless Wonders" White Sox defeated the heavily favored Cubs, winners of a major-league record 116 games, in what was billed as the Trolley Car Series ... the Sox batted a league-low .230 during the regular season, were shut out 16 times and hit just seven home runs ... conversely, the Cubs fielded the legendary infield of Joe Tinker, Johnny Evers and Frank Chance, and featured the National League's top pitcher in future Hall-of-Famer Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown ... the Sox pitching staff posted a league-best 32 shutouts, with ace Ed Walsh recording a league-high 10 followed by Doc White and Frank Owen with seven apiece ... despite hitting only .198 in the series, the pitching staff compiled a 1.67 ERA (10 ER/54.0 IP) and allowed only 27 hits (.196 average).

Recap: Nick Altrock outdueled Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown as the White Sox captured the series opener, 2-1 ... a pair of errors by the North Siders led to both Sox runs ... Frank Isbell's RBI single in the sixth inning gave the White Sox a 2-0 lead, but after a wild pitch in the bottom of the frame brought the Cubs within a run, Altrock fired blanks the rest of the way ... the game was played amid snow flurries and freezing temperatures.

GAME 2: WHITE SOX 5, RED SOX 4

Notes: The White Sox rallied from a 4-0 deficit to post a 5-4 victory ... Tadahito Iguchi's three-run homer in the fifth inning capped a five-run rally as the Sox became just the seventh team in ALDS history to overcome a deficit of four runs or more in a victory ... Iguchi joined Hideki Matsui as the only Japanese players to homer in a postseason game ... rookie Bobby Jenks became only the second pitcher since 1975 to record a save of six or more outs in his postseason debut.

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 5, RED SOX 3

Notes: Chicago completed the ALDS sweep with a 5-3 win at Fenway Park ... Paul Konerko broke a 2-2 tie with a two-run homer off Tim Wakefield in the sixth inning ... Manny Ramírez led off Boston's sixth with a solo homer, his second of the game, and the Red Sox then loaded the bases with no outs off Damaso Marte ... however, Orlando "El Duque" Hernández (3.0 scoreless IP) worked out of the inherited jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon to end the threat ... the Sox added an insurance run in the ninth inning on a suicide squeeze bunt by Juan Uribe, and rookie Bobby Jenks pitched a 1-2-3 ninth for his second save of the series.

Orlando "El Duque" Hernández threw 3.0 scoreless IP in relief in Game 3 of the ALDS at Fenway Park. With Chicago holding a 4-3 lead in the seventh inning, Hernández inherited a bases-loaded, no-out situation but worked out of the jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon on a 3-2 count to end the threat. The White Sox went on to post a 6-3 victory and complete the three-game sweep of the defending World Champion Red Sox.

GAME 1: ANGELS 3, WHITE SOX 2

Notes: Despite playing in three time zones in three straight nights, the Angels received a solid outing by Paul Byrd and a solo home run by Garret Anderson to take a 1-0 advantage in the ALCS ... Byrd, pitching on three days rest, allowed two runs on six hits in 6.0 IP ... José Contreras (3 ER/7.0 IP) saw his nine-game winning streak come to an end ... Joe Crede hit his first home run of the playoffs, a solo shot in the third inning ... Neal Cotts retired both batters faced, the only appearance by a Sox reliever in the series ... the White Sox fell to 0-6 in the ALCS at home.

Notes: Jon Garland pitched a four-hitter, and Paul Konerko hit a two-run homer as the White Sox beat Los Angeles, 5-2, to take a 2-1 lead in the ALCS ... Garland, who had not pitched since 10/1, tossed Chicago's second straight complete game, following Mark Buehrle's five-hitter in Game 2 ... the White Sox scored three runs in the first inning on Jermaine Dye's run-scoring single and Paul Konerko's (3-4, HR, 3 RBI) two-run homer off John Lackey ... Chicago's first four batters combined for eight of the 11 hits ... Orlando Cabrera hit a two-run shot in the sixth, the only blemish on Garland's pitching line.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 8, ANGELS 2

Notes: Freddy García nearly duplicated Mark Buehrle's five-hitter and Jon Garland's four-hitter, making the White Sox the first team to pitch three straight complete games in the postseason since the 1973 New York Mets (Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman) ... García, who was pitching for the first time since clinching the ALDS, gave up two early runs while striking out five ... A.J. Pierzynski homered for the White Sox, his third of the postseason, and Joe Crede added a two-run single in the eighth off Esteban Yan ... Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game ... Chicago scored seven runs in the first innings of the series.

Notes: The White Sox advanced to their first World Series since 1959, defeating Los Angeles, 4-1, in the ALCS ... José Contreras tossed the fourth consecutive complete game by a Sox hurler, retiring his final 15 batters faced as he bounced back after dropping Game 1 ... Pierzynski reached first on Escobar's error in the eighth, Crede's slow roller up the middle plated Rowand with the go-ahead run ... Paul Konerko, who was named the series MVP, added a RBI double in the ninth and Rowand capped the night with a sacrifice fly ... the Sox won the sixth AL pennant in franchise history.

The White Sox eliminated the Los Angeles Angels in five games to advance to their first World Series since 1959. Mark Buehrle, Jon Garland, Freddy García and José Contreras threw four consecutive complete-game victories to end the series, the first team to accomplish that feat since the 1928 New York Yankees.

2005 WORLD SERIES

GAME 1: WHITE SOX 5, ASTROS 3

Notes: In the first World Series game held in Chicago since 1959, the White Sox posted a 5-3 victory vs. Houston ... Jermaine Dye hit an opposite-field home run off Roger Clemens in the first inning ... the Sox added a pair of runs in the second on A.J. Pierzynski's RBI groundout and Juan Uribe's RBI double ... Lance Berkman evened the game with a two-run double in the third, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a solo home run off Wandy Rodríguez in the fourth ... Houston put runners on first and third with no outs in the eighth, but Neal Cotts (two strikeouts) and Bobby Jenks (one strikeout) combined to end the Astros threat ... Clemens left after 2.0 IP with a sore left hamstring ... José Contreras, the sixth Cuban pitcher to ever start a World Series game, earned the victory despite tying a Fall Classic record by hitting three batters.

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 5 (14)

Notes: For the second straight game, an unlikely hero came to the forefront for the White Sox as Geoff Blum hit a solo home run in the 14th inning to break a 5-5 tie ... Blum, who had one prior postseason at-bat, entered the longest game in World Series history in the 13th and lined a 2-0 pitch over the right-field wall to give the Sox the lead ... Chicago added an insurance run on Chris Wither's bases-loaded walk ... Houston put runners on the corners in the 14th, but Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle came on to retire Adam Everett on a popout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the game ... the Astros left the winning run at third base in the ninth and at second in the 10th and 11th ... Jon Garland allowed four runs in the first 4.0 IP but retired 12 of his last 13 batters faced ... Chicago overcame a 4-0 deficit by scoring five runs in the fifth off Roy Oswalt, highlighted by Joe Crede's solo homer and A.J. Pierzynski's two-run double that put the Sox ahead, 5-4 ... Jason Lane's double off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth tied the game at 5-5 ... the 43 players used by both teams was a World Series record, and it marked the first Series game played in Texas.

● Giolito held the A's to one run on two hits over 7.0 IP with one walk and eight strikeouts ... he retired the first 18 batters in order before allowing a leadoff single to Tommy La Stella in the seventh ... Giolito became the fifth pitcher in MLB history (first White Sox) to be perfect through 6.0 IP of a postseason start.

● Engel hit a solo homer off Jesús Lázaro in the second, and Abreu hit a two-run shot in the third to give the Sox a 3-0 lead ... Tim Anderson went 3-4 with a run scored, and Yasmani Grandal added a solo shot in the eighth to extend the lead to 4-0.

● Trailing, 5-0, entering the eighth, Yasmani Grandal hit a two-run homer off Liam Hendriks to cut the deficit to 5-2 ... the Sox loaded the bases off Hendriks in the ninth on two-out singles by rookie Nick Madrigal and Tim Anderson and a walk by Yoán Moncada ... Grandal walked to force in Madrigal, but José Abreu, who led MLB with 60 RBI in the regular season, grounded out to end the game.

CAMELBACK FACTS AND INFORMATION

A baseball oasis, Sonoran desert-inspired Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G), now in its second decade as the spring home of the White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers, is a successful public-private partnership between the two teams and the City of Glendale (Arizona). It features a 141-acre campus, largest in the Cactus League, and a state-of-the-art stadium that seats 13,500 fans (10,500 permanent seats, 3,000 grass). A five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (Dodgers) and west (White Sox). The two teams honor their histories with photo opportunities along the water feature recognizing their all-star players.

Attendance

- The Ranch welcomed 244,820 fans in 2019, the third-largest total attendance in facility history. The complex's 8,442 per-game average in 2019 ranked second in its history, falling just 27 fans per game shy of its all-time record (2016). CR-G also recorded seven sellouts in 2018 (one shy of its record of eight).
- The Ranch has hosted more than 200,000 fans 10 times.
- Largest crowd: 13,721 - 3/23/13, White Sox vs. Dodgers
- Largest season attendance: 257,609 (2017)
- Most sold-out games: 8 (2016)

Ballpark Firsts

- Game: White Sox vs. Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Pitch: Hiroki Kuroda, Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Hit: Jayson Nix, White Sox, double, second inning, 3/1/09.
- Home Run: Gordon Beckham, White Sox, ninth inn., 3/1/09.

The Ballpark at Camelback Ranch

- The stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for over 3,000 fans.
- Natural materials (real stone veneer, architectural metal "rusty" panels, three-tone faux painting) were used for external finishes to blend the desert surroundings. Caramel-colored seats and stone retaining walls further the natural look.
- Prior to the 2020 season, extended the protective netting down the left and right-field lines to ensure the safety of and improve the game-watching experience for fans
- CR-G in 2018 debuted a 30' x 50' Daktronics outfield videoboard. The HD videoboard provides fans with a dramatic upgrade to the visual and interactive experience during games.
- Another significant enhancement in 2018 was the addition of two new 100-foot shade structures along the first base concourse. The structures, designed by HKS, complement existing design features while providing more shaded seating.

Ballpark Boulevard

- Prior to the start of 2020 spring training, the city of Glendale, Camelback Ranch, the White Sox and Dodgers announced the opening of Ballpark Boulevard (111th Avenue).
- The new 1.8 mile stretch of road connects CR-G with the Loop 101, Westgate and Glendale's sports/entertainment district. The road opening greatly enhances gameday ingress and egress.

Campus

- The distinctive complex covers 141 acres, making CR-G the largest campus in the Cactus League.
- The five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (LAD) and west (CWS) and provides field irrigation, landscaping and aesthetic enhancement.
- Landscaping includes approximately 5,000 plants and trees.

Connectivity

- Fans are able to enjoy free public Wi-Fi throughout the stadium by connecting to the CRG_Public network, opening a browser, and following instructions for Wi-Fi powered by Cox.
- White Sox fans from all over the country can share photos and experiences using #SoxSpringTraining, and are encouraged to follow @camelbackranch on Instagram and Twitter for behind-the-scenes access and informational updates.

Photo Spots

- The White Sox have joined the Dodgers in honoring their all-star players along the five-acre river and lake system separating the teams' practice fields. The displays list every all-star player in history position by position for fans to enjoy as they walk to and from the stadium and practice fields.
- Each side of the complex also has a six-foot-tall team logo, perfect for selfies. Inside the stadium, snap a pic with larger-than-life bobbleheads of Frank Thomas and Tommy Lasorda.

Team Buildings

- The Dodgers and White Sox buildings contain more than 118,000 square feet of major/minor league clubhouse space.
- Two of the 12 practice fields (four MLB, eight MiLB) replicate the Dodger and White Sox home ballparks with exact dimensions of Dodger Stadium and Guaranteed Rate Field.
- On the White Sox side, the club in 2020 completed the construction of a new group meeting space and indoor batting cages on the minor-league side of the complex.

New Clubhouse Store

- The stadium added an improved and larger satellite Clubhouse Store location down the left field line of the ballpark prior to the 2022 season. The modern container structure features New Era product, Spring Training-exclusive and White Sox merchandise.

New in 2023

- CR-G continues as a cashless venue, no exceptions.
- The gates to the main stadium now open 60 minutes prior to the contest's scheduled first pitch (previously 90 minutes).

New Rules in 2023

What Fans Want:

- A quicker game played with better pace
- More action such as stolen base attempts, doubles, triples, and great defensive plays

What We Are Doing:

Pitch Timer: Less down time, more action

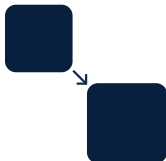

- 15 seconds with bases empty; 20 seconds with runner(s) on.
- Hitter receives one timeout per plate appearance.

Shift Restrictions: More hits, more athleticism

- Two infielders must be positioned on either side of 2B when pitch is released.
- All four infielders must have both feet within the infield when pitcher is on the rubber.

Bigger Bases: Increased safety, extra stolen bases

- 1B, 2B and 3B increased from 15" square to 18" square.
- Bigger bases expected to aid player health and promote an uptick in aggressive base running.

It Works:

Tested in the Minor Leagues With Great Results

- Average game length decreased by 25 minutes from 2021 to 2022 while increasing action.
